

Subscribers to the DAILY GAZETTE who do not receive their paper regularly, will confer a favor by reporting to the publishers at the GAZETTE PRINTING ROOM.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Henry L. Pitcher & Co. are wholesale agents for John J. Bagley's new Fall Mail fine cut tobacco. Dealers here can be supplied from them at Chicago prices. Freight saved.

SPECIAL SALE—Of trimmed hats Friday, Saturday and Sunday—November 6th, 7th and 8th, at McCullagh & Galbraith's.

New buckwheat, self raising Boston brown bread flour, boneless ham, whole cooked ham, rolled or tongue, Atmore's mince meat, Kennedy's wafers, Florida oranges, celery and Malaga grapes, arrived this morning at Donnan's.

Do not pay high prices for hats. Holmes & Son sell all the latest style hats at $2.00. An inspection of their stock will prove to you that you can save from 75cts. to $1.00 on each hat.

Carved wooden bread trays at Wheelock's.

Attend Bostwick & Sons' grand clock opening Friday and Saturday Nov. 6th and 7th. Particular attention given to special orders.

The Northwestern steam laundry at Madison, has the reputation of being the finest laundry west of Troy, New York. Work left at Holmes & Son's, the Jacksonville agents, before six o'clock Tuesday, will be returned Saturday. Satisfaction guaranteed, and all losses satisfactorily adjusted.

Attend Bostwick & Sons' grand clock opening Friday and Saturday Nov. 6th and 7th. Particular attention given to special orders.

Handsome sugar sifters, from 50 cents to $1.50, at Wheelock's.

Fine line of capridors, 10 cents to $3.00 at Wheelock's.

The pocket atlas is replete with detail information on every subject of general interest and is a complete geography showing the relative positions and size of every body of water and land on the globe—Given away with every fall suit of clothes purchased.

Children's clothes a specialty at Archie Reid's. Twenty styles to select from and at prices that defy competition.

Brush hoops to hang keys on, one cent each, at Wheelock's.

Attend Bostwick & Sons' grand clock opening Friday and Saturday, Nov. 6th and 7th. Particular attention given to special orders.

C. E. Bowles has money to loan.

A barber's chair and glass and a few more good coal, heating and cooking stoves which will be sold at reasonable rates at Sanborn & Cannell's near Gazette office.

More good news from C. E. Bowles, in this column.

Children's clothes cheapest at Archie Reid's.

Wolf, buffalo and goat robes, at James Fathens, corner Court and Main streets.

Elbridge keeps a fine line of cigars and toilet goods.

Let me whisper to inquirers for good homes that I have for sale in this city, a goodly number of desirable residences at prices as follows: One at $1,800, one at $2,000, one at $2,800, one at $3,000, one at $3,200, three at $3,500, one at $3,800, one at $4,000, three at $4,500 each, and a number at less prices ranging down to a few hundred dollars. C. E. BOWLES.

House and lot, corner Jackson and Wall streets, for $1,900. C. E. BOWLES.

Houses to rent—On South Academy street. Enquire of J. A. Toca.

Two houses and lots for $700 each, for sale by C. E. Bowles.

Go to Elbridge's drug store on Main street for pure drugs and medicines.

Remember that you can find—any kind of an overcoat you want at our store. We have all grades in all styles suitable for all classes—at uniformly low prices. FROENKEL & ZIEGLER.

Clocks, clocks, clocks—Ladies if you intend purchasing a clock of any kind, step into Archie Reid's and examine his immense stock and if price is any object you will buy.

Ladies you can save from 15 to 25 per cent by buying your clocks at Archie Reid's.

The handkerchiefs have come, and they are a fine lot; 50-cent goods for 25 cents. FROENKEL & ZIEGLER.

All the new styles of winter garments at Archie Reid's.

For a fine selection of pantaloons good at prices that defy competition, go to W. C. Holmes & Son.

For SALE—Tobacco warehouse lot also 4, 5, 8, 10, 15 and 18 acre parcels of good tobacco land in or near the city. Also some farm, 2 1/2 miles from the city, cheap.

H. H. BLANCHARD.

All kinds of harness, blankets and lap robes, at James Fathens.

Examine our stock of fur caps, under-wear, hosiery, shirts, collars, cuffs, mittens, silk and linen handkerchiefs and full line of gentlemen's goods. We will make it an object for you to trade with us. Respectfully, W. C. HOLMES & SON.

Fifty new silk garments received this week at prices that none can match. See them at Archie Reid's.

Be sure and see the Garland stove before buying any other.

METCALF & GOWDEY.

The best styles and the largest stock of clocks in the city to select from is at Archie Reid's.

Hats—Stiff hats, soft hats in fur, felt, or wool. All prices and sizes at Foote & Wilcox.

Nov. 1st. During this time the heifer produced 6,670 pounds of milk. The first twenty-four days Mr. Gold sold an even one hundred pounds of butter made from the heifer, besides what was used in the family. During this time of record the heifer was not forced by high feeding, she had good pasture and water, and only one quart of equal parts of cornmeal and bran per day. The heifer is of the ordinary breed—exact pedigree not known, but is a good one.

—The Evansville Enterprise: "One of the most brilliant weddings of the season was that on Thursday evening, Oct. 29, 1885, of the sprightly Miss Dell Gillman and the gentlemanly Luther K. Frautz, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gillman. Miss Dell is the only and much beloved daughter of the house, and Mr. Frautz is one of the active young men of our village. About one hundred relatives and friends were present, and at 8 o'clock Miss Dell touched the keys of the instrument and the party walked into the parlor keeping step to the wedding march and placing themselves on the east side of the room under a beautiful marriage bell made of chased flowers, answered the questions propounded by Rev. H. Sewell which made them husband and wife, in the name of the Father, Son, and of the Holy Ghost. The bride was dressed in gold satin, and looked very beautiful. The bridesmaid, Misses Lizzy Krantz and Katie Fellows, were dressed in white, and maids and dresses were very pretty. The groom was dressed in the conventional black with white satin necktie, as were the groomsmen, Nay and Fred Gillman, brothers of the bride. At the close of the ceremony the bride and groom were warmly congratulated and all sat down to the wedding supper which was a sumptuous one indeed. The presents were beautiful, useful and numerous."

—The county board of equalization, in session to-day, decided to equalize property the same as last year.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stanton returned this noon from a three months visit in New York, Massachusetts and Michigan.

—Professor Severance held his dancing school last night, and will continue to have it on Tuesday instead of Wednesday.

—The family of Mr. E. B. Moses has left for a few weeks visit among relatives and friends at Monroe, Wis., and Mendota, Ill.

—German conversation this evening from 8 to 9 o'clock, in the music rooms of Dahl & Wheeler, next door to Dr. Hawley's office.

—To-day the circuit court opened, Judge J. R. Bennett presiding. Nothing was done except to call the court calendar and the jury list.

—A delegation of the members of Crystal Temple of Honor will go to Beloit this evening, leaving the Chicago & Northwestern passenger depot at 6:30.

—Burglars were at work last night, and went through the residence of Mr. H. F. Bliss, in the first ward, securing money and other valuables, amounting to some fifty dollars or more.

—The shipments of tobacco from Jacksonville during the past week amounted to 120 cases; and 63 cases lot went to Davenport, Iowa, while the rest of it was distributed through the country.

—The November term of the Rock county circuit court convened this morning at the court house, Judge John R. Bennett presiding. The calendar was published in the Gazette on Monday.

—Frank Pierson and Alden Robinson caught a very fine pickerel last evening in the river. He weighed 14 1/2 pounds, measures 3 feet 4 inches in length, and is the largest one captured here in many years.

—Mrs. White, of Washington, D. C., ended her short but very pleasant visit with the family of Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Judd, this morning returning to her office in the treasury department at Washington.

—Harvest supper in the Congregational church parlors Friday evening, November 6, from 6 to 8 o'clock. All our hungry friends are invited to the banquet of the season, and a sociable time. Supper 25 cents.

—The old brewery at the foot of Main street which burned some time ago, has been rebuilt, and to-day is running at its full capacity. Mr. John Boub is the proprietor, his saloon on River street being now in charge of Mr. Michael Dobb.

—Miss Marie N. Williams gave a social party last evening at her home on Madison street, first ward. The affair was a very pleasant one, and her friends were royally entertained. A delicious supper was served by the hostess, and was done full justice to by the guests.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clark, in the fourth ward was filled with members of the Court Street M. E. church and their friends last evening, the occasion being an old fashioned social. All present enjoyed themselves and the affair passed off very pleasantly.

—The dance given by the Catholic Cornet band at the Riffe's army last evening was quite a success. The hall was not crowded, but there were enough present to make the affair interesting, and it was with regret that the young people left the door when the time for closing had arrived.

—To-night at Lappin's opera house, the Blanche Melville Comedy company will present "Little Treasure" to the Jacksonville people. "Hidden Hand" was given last evening and though the company is not an exceedingly brilliant combination they succeeded in pleasing the audience immensely in that drama.

—About thirty lady friends of Mrs. J. L. Ford were very hospitably entertained at her home on Madison street, first ward, last evening. An elegant supper was served at 8 o'clock, and everything passed off pleasantly. Mrs. Ford gave good evidence of her accomplishments as a hostess, and the supper served was actually a credit to her.

—Who gets the prize? Every person buying a reserved seat ticket for each and every one of the Blanche Melville Company performances this week at the opera house will receive a ticket giving them a chance on a fine silver pitcher, value $25, to be drawn the last night of the performance, Saturday, November 7th. Call at Fred H. Fellows' jewelry store and see it.

—The arrangements for the masquerade party to be given by the Bower City Rifles, at their armory to-morrow evening, are now complete, and the success of the party is assured. Mrs. Frank, the noted costumer of Watertown, will be in the city to-morrow afternoon and evening, taking rooms at the armory, where she will be ready to accommodate all with fancy costumes at reasonable prices. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music, the price of tickets has been placed at 50 cents, and all who attend will be sure of a good and pleasant evening's amusement.

—Mr. Fred Gould, of Lima, this county, has a four-year old heifer, which he considers the "boss" of the county. On the 28th of last April he commenced a milk record, which he kept up until

Nov. 1st. During this time the heifer produced 6,670 pounds of milk. The first twenty-four days Mr. Gold sold an even one hundred pounds of butter made from the heifer, besides what was used in the family. During this time of record the heifer was not forced by high feeding, she had good pasture and water, and only one quart of equal parts of cornmeal and bran per day. The heifer is of the ordinary breed—exact pedigree not known, but is a good one.

—The Evansville Enterprise: "One of the most brilliant weddings of the season was that on Thursday evening, Oct. 29, 1885, of the sprightly Miss Dell Gillman and the gentlemanly Luther K. Frautz, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gillman. Miss Dell is the only and much beloved daughter of the house, and Mr. Frautz is one of the active young men of our village. About one hundred relatives and friends were present, and at 8 o'clock Miss Dell touched the keys of the instrument and the party walked into the parlor keeping step to the wedding march and placing themselves on the east side of the room under a beautiful marriage bell made of chased flowers, answered the questions propounded by Rev. H. Sewell which made them husband and wife, in the name of the Father, Son, and of the Holy Ghost. The bride was dressed in gold satin, and looked very beautiful. The bridesmaid, Misses Lizzy Krantz and Katie Fellows, were dressed in white, and maids and dresses were very pretty. The groom was dressed in the conventional black with white satin necktie, as were the groomsmen, Nay and Fred Gillman, brothers of the bride. At the close of the ceremony the bride and groom were warmly congratulated and all sat down to the wedding supper which was a sumptuous one indeed. The presents were beautiful, useful and numerous."

—The county board of equalization, in session to-day, decided to equalize property the same as last year.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stanton returned this noon from a three months visit in New York, Massachusetts and Michigan.

—Professor Severance held his dancing school last night, and will continue to have it on Tuesday instead of Wednesday.

—The family of Mr. E. B. Moses has left for a few weeks visit among relatives and friends at Monroe, Wis., and Mendota, Ill.

—German conversation this evening from 8 to 9 o'clock, in the music rooms of Dahl & Wheeler, next door to Dr. Hawley's office.

—To-day the circuit court opened, Judge John R. Bennett presiding. Nothing was done except to call the court calendar and the jury list.

—A delegation of the members of Crystal Temple of Honor will go to Beloit this evening, leaving the Chicago & Northwestern passenger depot at 6:30.

—Burglars were at work last night, and went through the residence of Mr. H. F. Bliss, in the first ward, securing money and other valuables, amounting to some fifty dollars or more.

—The shipments of tobacco from Jacksonville during the past week amounted to 120 cases; and 63 cases lot went to Davenport, Iowa, while the rest of it was distributed through the country.

—The November term of the Rock county circuit court convened this morning at the court house, Judge John R. Bennett presiding. The calendar was published in the Gazette on Monday.

—Frank Pierson and Alden Robinson caught a very fine pickerel last evening in the river. He weighed 14 1/2 pounds, measures 3 feet 4 inches in length, and is the largest one captured here in many years.

—Mrs. White, of Washington, D. C., ended her short but very pleasant visit with the family of Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Judd, this morning returning to her office in the treasury department at Washington.

—Harvest supper in the Congregational church parlors Friday evening, November 6, from 6 to 8 o'clock. All our hungry friends are invited to the banquet of the season, and a sociable time. Supper 25 cents.

—The old brewery at the foot of Main street which burned some time ago, has been rebuilt, and to-day is running at its full capacity. Mr. John Boub is the proprietor, his saloon on River street being now in charge of Mr. Michael Dobb.

—Miss Marie N. Williams gave a social party last evening at her home on Madison street, first ward. The affair was a very pleasant one, and her friends were royally entertained. A delicious supper was served by the hostess, and was done full justice to by the guests.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clark, in the fourth ward was filled with members of the Court Street M. E. church and their friends last evening, the occasion being an old fashioned social. All present enjoyed themselves and the affair passed off very pleasantly.

—The dance given by the Catholic Cornet band at the Riffe's army last evening was quite a success. The hall was not crowded, but there were enough present to make the affair interesting, and it was with regret that the young people left the door when the time for closing had arrived.

—To-night at Lappin's opera house, the Blanche Melville Comedy company will present "Little Treasure" to the Jacksonville people. "Hidden Hand" was given last evening and though the company is not an exceedingly brilliant combination they succeeded in pleasing the audience immensely in that drama.

—About thirty lady friends of Mrs. J. L. Ford were very hospitably entertained at her home on Madison street, first ward, last evening. An elegant supper was served at 8 o'clock, and everything passed off pleasantly. Mrs. Ford gave good evidence of her accomplishments as a hostess, and the supper served was actually a credit to her.

—Who gets the prize? Every person buying a reserved seat ticket for each and every one of the Blanche Melville Company performances this week at the opera house will receive a ticket giving them a chance on a fine silver pitcher, value $25, to be drawn the last night of the performance, Saturday, November 7th. Call at Fred H. Fellows' jewelry store and see it.

—The arrangements for the masquerade party to be given by the Bower City Rifles, at their armory to-morrow evening, are now complete, and the success of the party is assured. Mrs. Frank, the noted costumer of Watertown, will be in the city to-morrow afternoon and evening, taking rooms at the armory, where she will be ready to accommodate all with fancy costumes at reasonable prices. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music, the price of tickets has been placed at 50 cents, and all who attend will be sure of a good and pleasant evening's amusement.

—Mr. Fred Gould, of Lima, this county, has a four-year old heifer, which he considers the "boss" of the county. On the 28th of last April he commenced a milk record, which he kept up until

SAD PARENT INTERVIEWED

Chicago's Latest Sensation Linked With a Resident of Lincoln.

A Talk with an Aged Dentist.

From the Omaha Bee, October 31st. FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.

In the second floor front room of No. 1,214 O street, yesterday morning, stood an aged man banding over a gentleman who sat in a dentist's chair.

The old man was a dentist, and his work was the usual routine duties which devolve upon one of his profession. Presently he finished and looking up to the man reporter who had entered the room, asked him his errand.

The telegraphic columns of this paper on Thursday morning announced the attempted murder of Mrs. Ray Good and Miss Lillian Walter in Chicago Wednesday evening by a young man named A. J. Burras. The murder was committed in front of R. G. Dunn & Co's mercantile agency, at Nos. 140 and 141 Monroe street, and the assaulted ladies were employed, and Burras a discharged employee. The affair seems to have been unprovoked and done in cold blood.

The dentist in Lincoln approached the man reporter was A. P. Burras, the father of the assassin. Approaching the old gentleman the reporter handed him a Thursday's issue of the Chicago News, which contained a cut of his son.

The old gentleman seemed greatly affected and when the reporter asked him if he was Burras' father he answered by asking the question: "Who told you that I was his father?" and his eyes searched the reporter's face as if to gain an answer.

For some time he was loath to speak and it was with considerable difficulty that he could be persuaded to say anything at all. He feared the publicity. "I am just starting in business here and it will injure me greatly," he said.

"To be known in the matter, I knew that it would have to come out, but I would like to have it kept quiet for a few days until I recover from the great shock which this terrible affair has caused."

"Yes," he continued, "the boy is my son, and I cannot account for the crime. I never knew that his mind was peculiarly affected. In his early life he was always a bright, cheerful boy, in good health and spirits. He was born at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, twenty-eight years ago. He left home at the age of 17 and went to Fort Wayne, Ind., where I believe he worked in a drug store for some time. He has not been in the habit of visiting us only occasionally since he went to the drug agency at St. Paul and Minneapolis for quite a while before he moved to Chicago. In April, 1884, he married a Miss Salie Cooper, of St. Paul, and it was only a short time after that we received a letter from him requesting his mother to come from Des Moines to his new home, where they resided in Chicago to live with him. She afterwards did go. I have been in Lincoln about two months and am just getting into practice."

"No," said Mr. Burras, in answer to the reporter's question, "Your present visit is not the first time I have received of the sad affair. Yesterday morning as I was glancing over the paper nearly the first item which caught my eye was that. Soon afterwards I received a telegram from my wife. I thought for several days that something was wrong or about to happen, for I had not heard from them for nearly three weeks. We have been in the habit of corresponding constantly."

In answer to a question, Mr. Burras said: "So far as more statements of facts are concerned, I think the Chicago Tribune had them properly stated, but there is something behind it all. About three years ago Arba's brother was killed in a railroad accident. I think I mentioned on the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, near Jacksonville Wis. The boys had nearly loved each other, and the sudden death of Charles seemed to bear deep on Arba's mind. From a lively and cheerful boy he became morose and morose, and whenever my mother and I saw him he said that he did not care to live any longer. His mind was clearly affected and no word of ours could cheer him up. From that time on he began to keep his nerves tight, and at the present time I believe him to be a confirmed opium smoker. He ran down and got very poor, and was in miserable health. His agency rendered him crazy, and possibly he attributed his discharge to two unfortunate victims."

Dr. Burras will go to Chicago as soon as the shock to his nerves has left him. In appearance he is the exact opposite of what he is, a scholarly old gentleman, and one who has passed his life in close application to study and work. He is about 38 years old, and five feet eight inches tall, weighing 150 pounds. His hair is gray, and his countenance frank and honest looking. He is an enthusiastic student of dentistry, and has written several pamphlets on the subject. He feels very greatly pained at his son's act, and offers to pay for his confinement in any sanatorium or hospital, and he cannot offer any aid to his son. The doctor appears to be a gentleman, and no blame can possibly attach to him; on the contrary he is deserving of the heartiest sympathy of this community.

I was cured by Atholpore of rheumatism. The first four doses gave me relief. Only used one bottle and have never had any return of pain since. Wm. B. Bass, real estate and insurance agent, 93 1/2 South Third street, Lafayette, Ind.

EVANSVILLE.

Burglars entered the residence of L. J. Burden last night and took from the house a considerable amount of money and jewelry. The burglar was seen by the owner, and he was shot and killed. The burglar was seen by the owner, and he was shot and killed.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

The average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase. The average of medical men is that the average length of life is on the increase.

TOBACCO.

Few Sales or Offers Reported in the States.

Buying has commenced in connection with all other markets are quiet.

JANESVILLE.

The market in both old and new leaf remains very quiet and undoubtedly for some time. No offers have been made for the '85 crop yet, and many farmers are now beginning to strip. It seems as though this process is being commenced too soon, for certainly much of the tobacco which has been taken down is unfit to handle. There is very little Wisconsin tobacco of this year's crop which will be ready to strip for two or three weeks.

According to the reports in "Herald-Examiner" the 1885 crop will be the largest ever produced in the state. It will have an average of 29,200, nearly double that of 1884, and out of this Rock county has nearly 11,500, Dane states at the head with 12,750 acres and the remainder is distributed through Jefferson, Columbia, Green, Sauk, Richland, Walworth, Grant, and Vernon. The average damage through the state will be about 24 per cent. Altogether the production will foot up about $1,000,000 for Wisconsin, Rock growing 35,000 cases. Very little of anything but Havana has been grown in the state. This tremendous growth is one reason why Wisconsin does not hold a higher place in the market.

The only sale of any importance which occurred this week was that of 90 cases of 1884 wrappers by Mr. Samuel Grundy to Hibbard, Gooden & Ehrler. Prices unknown. Retailing is going on constantly and shipments of small quantities amounting in all to about thirty cases have been made. Besides this one car load of '84 was shipped to Davenport, Iowa, by Hibbard, Gooden & Ehrler, it being goods sold by them last spring.

NEW YORK.

It is admitted on all sides that never in the history of the seed leaf trade has there existed such universal feeling of despondency as was apparent this week. The naked fact is, manufacturers don't want seed leaf, except in case of compulsion. In such a case they simply play "foot ball" with the sellers of leaf—to use the phrase of a reliable broker.

There is no use denying or hiding the dreary fact that the seed leaf business and leaf culture, Havana seed, for example, are drifting into their graves, unless the importation of Sumatra is checked. This country has raised a good enough tobacco in '84; it has raised good tobacco in '85, '86 and '87. It may be able to raise better tobacco in future, if it can. Do what it will, Sumatra is preferred, and packers, dealers and growers may as well make up their minds to enter other occupations than to fondle a hope that the next crop will be so far superior to Sumatra as to drive it out of the market. The only thing left to save the tobacco trade and culture, is to make one solid, determined effort to raise the duty on Sumatra to at least $1 per pound.

Growers and farmers now select men who will labor day after day and night after night, if need be, on this question of existence.

The new through protestation of the seed leaf business has been felt by the growers very shortly. Except in sections where, as I said before, patches of Sumatra-like tobacco have been raised, no buyers for '85 tobacco will be seen for many months, yes, even years to come, provided the duty on Sumatra is not increased.

The seed leaf industry of the country is virtually dead. Nothing but a duty of at least one dollar per pound on all wrappers will ever revive it.

The business in Sumatra in our near neighborhood has been a very extraordinary heavy one, nearly 450 bales having changed hands at $1.1